PORTLAND MARKETS

Latest Quotations in the Portland Markets.

Complete Market Reports Corrected Each Day Giving the Wholesale Prices of Commodities, Farm Produce and Vegetables.

Portland, Nov. 25. Little change from the present prices is expected in the turkey market this Thanksgiving season, as the home demand and supply are considered about equal. Shippers are allowed 17@18¢ a pound for live turkeys, and 20@21¢ for dressed, according to commission men, and although there is little buying yet by consumers dressed birds will keep until they are needed next week.

"Portland is not importing turkeys from the east this year, as San Francisco and Seattle are doing," one dealer said, "and so we will depend entirely on our home supply. San Francisco is importing largely from Texas, as the demand of that city cannot be wholly supplied by California; while Seattle is bringing turkeys from the eastern states, and is not looking to Oregon for any birds this year."

"We are now retailing choice dressed turkeys at 25¢ a pound. Portland people will not pay any more, as a rule, but will switch off to chicken or geese should we ask over $2.50 for a 10-pound bird."
